

COLORED COLUMN

EDITED BY JAMES E. TODD.

Our sick are Messrs. Fate Wilks, Lee Kirby, Terry Welley, Mrs. Ella Holt, Mrs. Wm. Johnson, Mrs. Lena Johnson and Mrs. Thos. Wilson.

Mrs. Florence Renfro and daughter, Miss Ella May, of Centerville, Tenn., are visiting her sister, Mrs. Ella Holt, who has been very ill, but is able to be out again.

Mrs. Willie Galbreath and Mrs. Julia Buckner, of Hopkinsville, visited Miss Nellie Brooks Wednesday.

Mr. Warren Hargroves accompanied Mr. Jessie Jackson to Evansville, Ind., Sunday to see his parents. They reported a nice time.

Mrs. Ella Hayes, of Evansville, Ind., was here attending Mrs. C. F. Bailey's funeral Sunday.

The concert which was given by Mrs. E. B. Keeton for the Baptist church on March 31st was a success, $15.00 being realized.

The great rally given by Rev. E. M. Smith, pastor of the A. M. E. Zion church was all that they hoped for Sunday. The Willing Workers club under the captainship of Mrs. Hattie Gray, was the winning club having raised $57.37. The Tenth Cavalry did well but lost having raised $50.75. Rev. E. M. Smith, supt., Total collection, $420.87 for which the pastor and members wish to thank their many friends and coworkers for their hearty support in their time of need and promises to lend a helping hand to all when in a like situation. Excelsior club did some excellent work and need not despair for they surely did what they promised at every entertainment and had some very interesting programmes as they were children. $41.28 was excellent for them.

The opening and anniversary which was held at the Mt. Zion Baptist church was a success and all were pleased to be once more with in those sacred walls after the cleaning up and repairing. The pastor was able to be with his flock and all went well in Zion.

Mrs. C. F. Bailey, wife of Rev. J. E. Bailey, died Friday morning and was buried Sunday at the cemetery with the honors of the Household of Ruth of which she had been a true and tried member for many years. The funeral was held at her home as it was her request by Rev. H. Amos and Rev. J. R. Robertson. One of Earlington's noblest and best women has departed. She came to this place when quite a girl, married early, began to rear a family yet went to school with her children, became efficient and taught in the same school. As a church and Sunday school worker no woman in this city has equalled her. Her many true and zealous friends mourn her loss but earth's loss is Heaven's gain.

Club No. 1 Willing Workers of the C. M. E., will give a festival Monday night, April 16th. The cornet band will furnish music. The public is invited. Admission 5 cents.

MORSE INTERNATIONAL AGENCY

On and After April 1st, 1906, the Corporation of the Lyman D. Morse Advertising Agency Will Be Known As the Morse International Agency.

This agency had its beginning over sixty years ago and constituted a special form of business activity in newspaper advertising which had but newly developed through the commercial conditions existing then. It was founded by S. M. Pettengill, in 1849, and met with success from the start. Mr. J. H. Bates was early admitted to partnership and the name of S. M. Pettengill Company became proverbial as the leading advertising agency in the United States. After many years of the firm's unlimited success, Mr. Bates in 1886 bought out the entire interest of Mr. Pettengill, thus becoming sole owner of this large business; but the firm name continued as J. H. Bates until January 1, 1903, when Mr. Lyman D. Morse, who had been active with Mr. Bates for a number of years, became partner in the concern and caused the firm style to be changed to Bates and Morse.

After two years of partnership with Mr. Bates, Mr. Morse became the sole owner of the business and the name of the firm changed to the Lyman D. Morse Advertising Agency.

On March 1, 1898, H. Henry Douglas became the partner of and so continued until the latter's death on March 6, 1901.

On April 1, 1901, the firm was incorporated under the laws of the State of New York with the same name:—Lyman D. Morse Advertising Agency,—and with the following officers:

H. Henry Douglas, President.
Irving M. Dewey, Vice Pres. and Treas.

G. Howard Harmon, Secretary.

The Lyman D. Morse Advertising Agency, therefore being the oldest establishment of its kind in America and having, through its large clientele and progressiveness developed wide international connections it is believed expedient to adapt it in name to its enlarged sphere of operation by changing its business style to the Morse International Agency, 38 Park Row, New York.

Owing to increase of business, necessitating larger offices on May 1st to the Revillon Building, 19 West 34th Street, New York.
